1. The School collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents or guardians before and during the course of a pupil's enrolment at the School. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations.
2. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the school to conduct its business including the provision of education and support to students, exercising duty of care and the performance of associated administrative and legislative activities, which will enable students to take part in all activities of the school.
3. The school adheres to the Australian Privacy Principles and handles and discloses information according to the School's Privacy Procedures which is available on the school's website.
4. When you are asked to provide information the school's standard collection notice will be provided.
5. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the School's legal obligations, particularly to enable the School to discharge its duty of care.
6. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts, and Public Health and Child Protection laws.
7. Health information about pupils is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. We may ask you to provide medical reports about pupils from time to time.
8. The School may disclose personal and sensitive information for educational, administrative and support purposes. This may include other schools and teachers at those schools, government departments; medical practitioners; people providing educational, support and health services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, volunteers, counsellors and providers of learning and assessment tools; educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority; people providing administrative and financial services to the School; anyone you authorise the School to disclose information to; and anyone to whom the School is required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.
9. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians. Parents or students may seek access to and correction of their personal information which the School has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the student, or where students have provided information in confidence. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.
10. The School's Privacy Policy also sets out how parents and pupils can make a complaint about a breach of the APPs and how the complaint will be handled.
11. The School may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. [It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the School's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent. If you do not agree to this please inform the school.
12. On occasions information and photographs relating to student activities (e.g. camps, excursions, drama productions) and other news is published in various publications including but not limited to the school's weekly newsletter "The Pabulum" and on the school's website.
13. The school prints a class list with student and parent names, address and phone numbers which is distributed to the class. If you do not agree please advise the school.
14. If you provide the School with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the School and why.
