

PWS warmly invite you to our 2021 Class 12 Project Presentations

Tuesday 26th October 2021

- 10.40 am Welcome and introduction
- 10.50 am Patrick Franklyn What are the key factors contributing to young people's acceptance of a debt funded way of life?
- 11.30 am Shayla Bell How is our clothing controlled by gender stereotypes and what are we doing to shift this culture?
- 12.20pm Genevieve Morgan What are the key threats impacting the ecological environment on Ningaloo Reef and what are some viable solutions and recommendations that need to be taken to help preserve this ecosystem?
- 1.50 pm Lily Peradon-Alaga What are psychic abilities such as intuition and how can we deepen our connection to them?

Tuesday Evening

- 5.30pm Welcome and introduction
- 5.45pm Omri Samorali What are the skills and costs involved in setting up a recording studio at home?
- 6.20pm Lili Stiedl Why don't Australians utilise the Environmental, Sustainable, and Health Benefits of Bush Foods?
- 7.00pm Break for tea, coffee and hot food for purchase
- 7.40pm Finian Unseld Has the increase in the availability and value of data led to big data's ability to influence politics and public perception?
- 8.15pm Finish

Wednesday 27th October 2021

- 11.20 am Welcome and introduction
- 11.30 am Dayna Grubisin Poverty: what is it, and why does it exist in a country where we have so much wealth? And why aren't we doing something about it?
- 12.20pm Xavier Sowelu What is Nihilism and how does it influence the meaning of life and can it result in alcohol abuse?
- 1.50 pm Jesse Brewer What does it take to build an acoustic guitar and why is it beneficial to a player rather than purchasing a new guitar?

Wednesday Evening

- 5.30pm Welcome and introduction
- 5.45pm Bodhi Wilkinson- McCarry While Perth's water is generally considered adequate for drinking purposes, it is not optimal for long-term health benefits. How can utilising superior water filtration systems produce water of a higher quality which assists in the improvement overall human health?
- 6.20pm Scarlett Ward How is fertility along with other factors contributing to the decline in Australia's population?
- 7.00pm Break for tea, coffee and hot food for purchase
- 7.40pm Ren Crozier Have the advancements in digital communication eroded human connection?
- 8.15pm Finish

Thursday 28th October 2021

- 10.40am Welcome and introduction
- 10.50 am Ansel Hinsman How important is the relationship between humans and dogs?
- 11.30am Annaella Viljoen How do blue and green spaces benefit our physical and mental health?
- 1pm Madeleine Harvey Is youth involvement in emergency service critical in the face of continued climate change and environmental crisis.
- 1.40pm Ella Betts What impact does music have on our wellbeing?

Thursday Evening

- 5.30pm Welcome and introduction
- 5.45pm Issy Ng Is there a future in Neurocriminology and is it a viable option to be used alongside current judicial methods?
- 6.20pm Niamh Southall How has Christianity been used by Western powers as an instrument of colonisation?
- 7.00pm Break for tea, coffee and hot food for purchase
- 7.40pm Sage Bradley Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder. What is life really like for people with this condition?
- 8.15pm Finish

Friday 29th October 2021

- 10.40am Welcome and introduction
- 10.50am Morgan Howell What is empathy and what are the factors that affect how much empathy we experience?
- 11.30am Tia Miragliotta How has love evolved through history and where are we now?
- 1pm Shae River What are biofuels and the different types, and what are the problems and benefits when using them?
- 1.40pm Sarah Eng-Grier Is animal testing still necessary in the cosmetics industry and what are the ethics around this?

Friday Evening

- 5.30pm Welcome and introduction
- 5.45pm Atsu Tsuru What is the process for beginners to write a composition in the style of western classical music?
- 6.20pm Jori Morrow Are traditional rites of passage the key to assisting young men avoid destructive patterns in the transition to adulthood?
- 7.00pm Break for tea, coffee and hot food for purchase
- 7.40pm Isa-Bo Haanskorf Equal rights for women have been won in many parts of the law but does equal status and equal power remain elusive and does sexism continue to be deeply embedded in our Australian culture?
- 8.15pm Closing

Thank you for supporting our Class 12s ~ your presence is much appreciated